Preamble:

Welcome to the Components of Tourism, a skill enhancement course tailored for first-year Bachelor of Arts Geography students. This course aims to delve into the diverse facets of tourism, exploring ecological, cultural, and urban tourism perspectives while delving into the nuances of tourism in India through case studies and practical applications. By integrating theoretical knowledge with practical exercises, students will gain a comprehensive understanding of the components that shape the tourism industry.

General Objectives of the Course:

- To analyze and differentiate between ecological and cultural tourism perspectives, encompassing nature-based, cultural, adventure, leisure, and urban tourism dynamics.
- To explore the landscape of tourism in India, focusing on World Heritage Sites, infrastructure development, challenges, and regional case studies such as Himalayan, Desert, Coastal, and Heritage Tourism.
- To evaluate the National Tourism Policy of India and critically assess its implications on the tourism industry.

Course Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of the diverse components that constitute tourism, including ecological, cultural, and urban perspectives.
- Critically analyze and discuss the tourism landscape in India, including World Heritage Sites, infrastructure development, challenges, and regional case studies.
- Evaluate the National Tourism Policy of India, identifying its strengths, weaknesses, and implications for the tourism industry.

Nature of Question Paper:

The student's examination and evaluation methods are as per the guidelines of the Shivaji University.

- Internal evaluation should be based on Home Assignment/Unit Test/Case Study
