Report on

"Mock Teaching: On the Occasion of the Teachers Day"

On the occasion of Teachers' Day, six B. Sc. III year students conducted mock teaching sessions for B. Sc. I and II-year students. This event was organized to foster peer learning, leadership skills, and pedagogical practice among senior students.

List of B. Sc. III Students participating in the Mock Teaching:

1. Mr. Khot Omkar Sukumar
2. Miss. Chikorde Aditi Pravin
3. Miss. Desai Anushka Gunaji
4. Miss. Mulla Kulsum Najir
5. Miss. Ranade Madhura Prasad
6. Mr. Raval Pavan Gurudev

The mock teaching session was designed to give the B. Sc. III students an opportunity to share their knowledge with their juniors. Each student was assigned a specific topic related to their subject, which they presented through interactive lectures. The senior students effectively engaged the juniors through discussions, examples, and questions, encouraging active participation. The topics were well-prepared and covered key concepts relevant to the B. Sc. I and II curriculum.

Junior students appreciated the teaching methods and found the sessions helpful for their understanding of the subjects. The mock teaching enhanced the presentation and communication skills of the B. Sc. III students.

The event was a successful learning experience for both the senior and junior students. It not only celebrated Teachers' Day but also emphasized the importance of peer learning in academic development. The efforts of the B. Sc. III students were commendable, and such initiatives will continue to be encouraged for holistic learning.
